MANY INJURED AND DEAD OVER LONG MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

Here's the First Time We Offer News Before It Happens; The Holiday Deaths are Always the Same

25 Deaths and 950 Injuries Estimated For Holiday Driving

The four-day holiday Memorial Day weekend will produce a traffic toll on Illinois highways of 25 fatalities and 950 injuries, Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club predicts.

Heavier tolls were experienced only in 1937 and 1940. Twenty-four fatalities occurred in Illinois last Memorial Day weekend when traffic was the heaviest in the history of that holiday.

Traffic volumes this year will equal or exceed last year's if weather conditions are favorable, Mr. Hayes said.

The Chicago Motor Club submits to motorists a four-point program for improving their holiday touring safety:

1. Schedule holiday activities to eliminate driving when fatigued or after consumption of alcohol.

2. Schedule trips to reduce or eliminate night driving, producer of two-thirds of all traffic fatalities.

3. Increasing margins of safety, especially passing and following distances, and speed controls at intersections, railroad crossings and on curves.

4. Make sure that breaks, windshield wipers, lights, and all safety equipment are in good operating order.

SMOKING IN BED CAUSES FIRE SUN.

The Orland Park and Mokena Fire departments were called to the home of Milton Bettenhausen last Sunday morning about 2:30 o'clock to extinguish a fire in their home.

The attention of Mr. and Mrs. Bettenhausen was aroused when they heard a bump in an upstairs room, which awakened them. Mr. Bettenhausen rushed to the stair door leading to the upper floor and discovered the room above occupied by their farm helper, Melvin Blaser, full of smoke, and Mr. Blaser having fallen out of bed and unconscious.

Mr. Bettenhausen rushed out doors and got a high ladder, climbed to the upper hallway window and kicked it in with his bare foot to allow the smoke to escape. He then moved the ladder to the bedroom window, climbed in and pulled Mr. Blaser out. By that time the fire departments arrived and completed extinguishing the fire and pulling the smoking mattress out on the ground when it burst into flames.

Mr. Blaser stated he fell asleep as he was smoking in bed.

Dr. E. G. McMahon dressed the cut which Mr. Bettenhausen sustained on his right foot when he broke in the window. Altho the foot is sore, it is healing nicely.

He has been in this country for the past two and a half years studying for the ministry at the Chicago University. When he completes his course, which will be in a few years, he plans to return to India as a Methodist preacher.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to hear him at the services next Sunday.

EDITORIAL

In time of war or a spirited address telling of a possible attack on us by another country, we are at once aroused and willing to fight at an instance of flag waving or a "drop of the hat." We surely do not lag in paying homage to our war heroes, but when the danger is over we like to settle down and not worry or concern ourselves about our country any longer. That is the majority do.

We need to arouse in all of us the spirit of "living for our country." Sometimes that is harder to do than just to go and fight for then we have our duties mapped out for us and we have nothing to do but obey.

There are many things, and especially now, when there is so much planning for centralizing of government control, that everyone can do—and MUST do, if our glorious country is to remain free. It is alarming when we stop and read about countries hundreds of years old, who are now in a state of decay, and how centralized government brought them to that point. If we would live for our country by fighting all these so-called "bright ideas" by clever men, we would find that to be a hard job, but worth fighting for. Hitler is one example.

Let us ask ourselves, each one, what we as an individual are doing to combat all these increases in taxes. We grumble about them when our tax bill comes and we note the big increase. We just go on paying it. So did the Germans, Greeks, Italians and many others.

Right now in our State Legislature there is a bill which proposes a 2 percent tax, not two cents, on all printing. If that is allowed how soon will it be before all other services are drawn into this same class. Printing is a service, and so declared the courts when this tax was on printing in the beginning of the last war. If services are to be taxed, how do we know the "Greedy" will not tax you every time you see your dentist, your doctor, your lawyer or the plumber comes to fix a leaky pipe, or the repairman fixes up the old radio or refrigerator?

If you are sincere and want to fight for your country, it is the duty of each one, to let your representatives and Senator know how you feel about this. Write to them and DO IT NOW, and tell them you are opposed to House Bill 678 and Senate Bill 348, imposing the 2 percent tax on printing.

Will County's representatives are: J. Harold Downey, Joliet; Lottie Holman O'Neil, Downers Grove and Warren Wood, Plainfield. Your Senator is Richard J. Barr, Joliet.

Cook County's representatives for Tinley Park and Orland Park are: Bernice T. Van der Vries, Winnetka and Vernon W. Reich, Forest Park, and your senator is Arthur J. Bidwell, 1403 Bonnie Brae, River Forest.

FRANKFORT SOFTBALL GAME

HAUCK OIL STATION OPEN

The Hauck Oil Station, located on Lincoln highway, New Lenox is opening this week end.

Frankfort is to have a recreation and store business center, according to an announcement made to the News-Bulletin Tuesday.

The building formerly occupied by Harry Balchowsky is being remodeled and an addition is being added to make room for this project, according to A. C. Bauch, owner of the building. When completed the building will be 37x112 feet with a self service grocery planned for the first floor. The second floor which will extend over the present locker plant will have the dimensions of 61x112 feet.

Plans call for the installing of six bowling alleys, a snack bar and a restaurant, besides a banquet hall on the second floor.

The building will be air conditioned and will be ready for fall occupancy, according to the announcement. The bowling alleys will be both for open and league bowling. League managers may contact Mr. Bauch in Frankfort to make reservations for next season's bowling schedules.

COOPER ELECTRIC ORLAND HOLDS OPEN HOUSE

The Cooper Electric at Orland Park are holding open house all this week at their new place of business on Beacon and 143rd street.

The Cooper Electric, owned by two brothers, Merrill and Floyd Cooper have been in business in Orland since the close of world war II and have recently purchased the building formerly occupied by the Busch Motor Sales. The large increase in business made it necessary to enlarge their quarters. They sell everything in the electric line.

In addition they have installed a large, airy ice cream parlor where they also serve lunches and short orders. During open house this week, they are serving ice cream and cake, children are to be accompanied by their parents. It might be a good thing, to refresh ones mind, to read again the four page ad of the Cooper Electric which appeared in the last issue of this paper.

Golden Opportunity Offered at the Farm Camp in Palos Park

In the hills of Palos just 23 miles southwest of the Chicago loop, northeast of Orland Park on the Southwest highway, a selected group of boys and girls between the ages of 8 to 12 will have the opportunity of a unique summer's experience of camping and farming combined at the Foundation Farm camp. The camp is one of the important aspects of the Community Center Foundation program which is well known in this area by many church, YMCA, YWCA and school groups who use its attractive surroundings for conferences, retreats, recreational outings, meetings etc.

There are four periods of two weeks each beginning on Sunday, June 26 and closing on August 21. It is the aim of the camp to develop the individual and provide a happy, healthful summer's experience. Therefore, to keep the camp small so that this can be accomplished, only 12 boys and 12 girls are accepted during any one period. They are selected by personal interview with the Director.

During the camp period, campers will learn about gardening, farming, riding, fishing, nature study, handicraft, and such games as baseball, archery etc. High points of the camp program are the hayrack ride, the overnight hike with food cooked outdoors and sleeping under the starlit sky. Then there are hikes in the lovely woods directly adjacent to the 60 acres of Foundation farmland and woodland. So by working and playing together in a surrounding of love and understanding, each camper leaves with a deeper understanding of nature and the wonders of this world in which he lives; and with a greater appreciation of his fellow campers for the camp is interdenominational and interracial.

Calendar of Activities

Twice each year (in the spring and in the fall) Foundation friends look forward to their retreats for a week-end to be spent in study, inspiration and leadership of outstanding people in the beautiful hills of Palos.

The Men's Retreat will take place the first week-end in June (the 4th and 5th) beginning at 3:00 p.m. and closing at about the same time on Sunday. Leaders will be: Mark Love, Glenn Harding, Dr. Frances Snow and Rev. Paul T. Sanders.

The Women's Retreat will take place the second week-end in June (the 11th and 12th), beginning at 3:00 p.m. and closing at the same time on Sunday. Leaders will be Dr. Frances Snow and Rev. Paul T. Sanders.

The Foundation reports that the Albrecht lecture was very much of a success. $200 was realized from the lecture which will be used for a building to house the Craft shop. The Foundation director and workers are most appreciative to all who helped in any way and to those who attended the lecture.

Legion Notes

Frankfort, Ill.

Bobzin-Swinford Post 1098

Do you know that in the spring of 1919, amidst complete devastation, the poppies bloomed in abundance on the battlefields of France, where so many of our men had fallen in battle, and that a replica of this poppy has become the Memorial flower of The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary? This week-end, when the Legion Posts and their Auxiliary Units ask you to wear a poppy made by a disabled veteran, the Bobzin-Swinford Post 1098 of Frankfort want you to recall the memorable words of the poem written by Colonel John McCrae.

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead—
Short days ago we lived, felt dawn,
Saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from failing hands we throw
The Torch—be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

"But it's true."

Fred and I figured it out last night."

"Imagine, having all the hot water you want, whenever you want it, for only eight cents a day! Helen, it doesn't seem possible. Why, just think, having an automatic GAS water heater costs less than a cake of soap!"

"I know it. Automatic water heating is really a bargain in convenience, too. I never have to worry about turning the heater off or on, or running out of hot water in the middle of a big laundry. Remember how I always used to plan my hot water uses so there'd be sure to be enough?"

"Remember? We're still doing it! But not for long, after I tell Bob how economical it is having an automatic GAS water heater."

"You know, we've moved around so much we've had almost every kind of water heating system there is... but if we ever move again, we're going to make sure we have an automatic GAS water heater."

"I can't get over it... having all the hot water you want sounds so luxurious."

"Well, it's not a luxury any more... not when it costs only 8c a day!"

Check on this today. See your master plumber, appliance dealer, or nearest Public Service store.

So Much for So Little with an Automatic GAS Water Heater

Summer Course to Train Librarians

Urbana, Ill.—Dr. Harold Lancour, chairman of the Illinois Library Recruitment Council, today announced the names of the instructors for the council's summer mobile training school in basic library procedures.

They are Miss Olive C. DeBruier, librarian at Joliet township high school and formerly librarian at Effingham high school and River Forest public library, and Karl O. Burg, student in the University of Illinois library school and formerly a member of the staff of Newberry library in Chicago.

The basic course, the same as one given last summer, plus an advanced workshop, will be presented at seven different localities in Illinois starting with the week of June 20. The program is designed to alleviate an acute shortage of librarians in the state by bringing training in the elements of librarians work to persons now working in libraries, to young people who want to "sample" the work before choosing a career and to others interested in the profession.

The Workshop, Dr. Lancour explained, is an addition to the program this year and is intended to "assist library workers who took the basic course last summer or who have had similar training." Because of full daily schedules, persons enrolling will be able to take only one or the other of the courses, but not both, he added.

The places and opening dates for the courses are: Mitchell-Carnegie public library, Harrisburg, June 20; Pere Marquette State library, June 27; Mattoon public library, July 11; Watseka public library, July 18; Parlin public library, Canton, July 25; Loveland Community center, Dixon, August 1; and Glencoe public library, August 8. The course will last 5 days at each place.

The cashew nut, so popular in this country, is actually the poisonous fruit of the cashew tree of Brazil and Central America, says The World Book Encyclopedia. The tree is closely related to the American poison ivy and people are often painfully poisoned by allowing their skin to come in contact with some of its parts. This toxic ingredient is entirely removed from the kernels by roasting before they are shipped to this country.

The U. S. has developed less than 10 percent of its potential waterpower resources.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—is it really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I'd bet my life on the decision."

From where I sit, your own opinion is worth a lot—but so's the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's on politics or farming—or whether you like milk shakes and he prefers a temperate glass of beer.

Spray House, Say "Shoo" to Flies

Spraying is one of the best ways to say "shoo" to flies and rid your house of this summer nuisance.

And spraying is a real protection for your family because flies are more than a nuisance. They're a health hazard. They carry at least 20 human diseases including diphtheria, smallpox, typhoid fever and possibly infantile paralysis.

The best time to start spraying is in early June. And a good chemical solution to use for spraying against flies is DDT a 25 percent emulsifiable concentrate diluted to 5 percent strength.

H. B. Petty, insect specialist in the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and Natural History Survey, outlines the following program to follow in spraying your home:

First paint the screen doors and frames, window screens and frames with the DDT solution. And spray the porch ceilings with it. Then repeat the routine every month. This will contaminate the roosting places of flies.

Other places that need frequent spraying are garbage cans and the area around them, and outdoor toilets.

Chop Hay

ENSILAGE
THIS LOW-COST WAY!

Here's the answer to low-cost feed-harvesting! It's the new John Deere Forage Harvester—the two-in-one machine that chops green or field-cured hay and, with the row-crop attachment, makes first-class ensilage from standing row-crops.

Simple in construction and operation, the John Deere is a forage harvester you can't afford to be without. See us for complete details.
